Zeatec Group new owner of Adveto

Zeatec Group buy all shares in Adveto, Advanced Technology, and moves the head office from Spånga to Landskrona. The office in Spånga will continue to be operated by Kent Sylvén, the founder of Adveto and the head office will be operated by the new Managing Director, Peter Nilsson. The purchase will not mean any large changes to how Adveto will act in the future. The focus for Adveto will continue to be support and production of ECDIS-systems for professional navigation. The sales of Adveto products will continue as before to be sold by a sales and support network with representatives in Sweden and the other Nordic countries.

“It will be a very interesting task for us in Zeatec Group to manufacture ECDIS-systems in our premises in the Maritime Centre at Oresund Dry Docks in Landskrona” says Peter Nilsson. “Adveto is just now part of a very interesting EU evaluation project called STM. STM is managed by Swedish Maritime Administration to get a safer, more efficient and environmentally friendly Maritime sector”.
